When we rejoice in fellowship, it is for the renewal of our faith. We are grateful for the spirit that prompted you to worship with us today and pray that you will join us again.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & PRAYERS IN WORSHIP

*Please help others to hear you by waiting for the microphone before speaking at announcement and prayer time. In this way, those who have hearing challenges can hear what you have to say too.
Thank you for your co-operation.*

If you know of someone who does something special at the church, please let the office know so we may mention them in the weekly E-News. You may leave a note on my desk, email the office@umcsj.org, or call at 734-5371.

*Call to Worship Kay Christenson

L: Come to Christ, that living stone, rejected by the world, but in God's sight chosen and precious.

P: We have responded to Christ's call, and seek to be built into a spiritual house, a living reminder of God's presence on earth.

L: Once we were no people, but now we are God's marvelous light Therefore we sin with the Church in all ages.

P: Blessed be your name, O God our redeemer. By your mercy we have been born anew to a living hope though the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Invocation

God of power and wonder, we are awestruck by the glory of your presence. We rejoice at what we can see; we marvel at what we cannot see. You dazzle us with your brightness; you overshadows us with a great cloud. Loving, protecting, challenging, nurturing, you strengthen and transform us. May we love and serve you in all that we are and do. Amen.

Up Date - Little Library

You may recall in the news recently a story about the teenage vandals who did millions of dollars of damage around the valley. They were also responsible for the starting the fire that damaged our "Little Library." They confessed to starting it on fire, along with doing damage to many other things in the area that were not reported, then they moved onto the big items that made the local news.

St James has been listed as a site of vandalism by these two teens when they were charged with the crimes. Monday I had to file a report, strictly for a matter of record that we did not ask for anyone to damage our property. Yes, you read that correctly. I must say I gave the officer a bit of look when he asked for that statement.

It is not likely we will recoup anything on the loss. It is my hope that when the weather gets more pleasant, perhaps later spring, that someone at St James can restore this much used outlet of free book exchange in our neighborhood.

Do all the good you can. By all the means you can.
In all the ways you can. In all the places you can.
At all the times you can. To all the people you can.
As long as ever you can.

~ John Wesley ~
